

Flat Creek Estate Dolcetto 2015

The Story:

Dolcetto is an Italian varietal whose name means “little sweet one”. Although the name implies sweetness, the resulting wine is almost always dry. Often the wines express fruitiness with balancing tannins and are meant to be consumed in one to two years after release. In Europe, wines meant for early consumption are referred to as “fresh wines”. Here in Texas, we refer to these as perfect summer wines!

The Tasting Notes:

Our 2015 Dolcetto is a dry, bright, fresh wine styled to be enjoyed every day. Made in 100% stainless steel tanks and aged for 7 months, this wine is a refreshing choice for the spring & summer!

The Awards:

Harvest & Winemaking Data:

Winemaker: Tim Drake
Harvested: 9/18/2015

Brix at Harvest: 23
pH: 3.9
Yeast: Red Fruit
Fermentation: 32 Days at 52°F
Aging: 100% Stainless Steel Tank

Bottled: 325 Cases Bottled 04/30/2016
Cellar: Drink Now
Residual Sugar: 0.0%
Alcohol: 13.4%

Wine Composition:

100% Dolcetto (Diamonte Doble Vineyard, Texas High Plains)

