

Flat Creek Estate Zinfandel 2014

The Story:

Some might remember our first Zinfandel back in 2003, bottled under it's Italian name, Primitivo. It was a lovely wine, and our hearts broke when it was discovered that we would later lose the vines to Leaf Roll. Fast forward to 2014, and we have found friends in the High Plains growing exceptional Zinfandel. We hope you'll enjoy this Zinfandel and reminisce about old days!

The Tasting Notes:

Typical of Zinfandel, this light-bodied wine exhibits bright acidity, ripe cranberry and strawberry aromas. Flavors of holly and clove develop over time. Enjoy this wine with Texas Bar-B-Que and holiday deep-fried turkey!
