TASTING NOTES

GINGER · CHAMOMILE · CITRUS

Wallis White is a dry white wine that's light and hosts strong citrus flavors with beautiful aromas of chamomile and ginger. The crisp, clean finish perfectly compliments vegetarian and outdoor cuisine.

WINEMAKER'S NOTES

SERVE CHILLED AT 45°F

The original Wallis Hotel was built in 1891 by Johnny Wallis for his sister, Susan. The Wallis family ran the hotel until 1926, and it was eventually torn down in the 1930s. Today, a replica of the hotel rests on Main Street and is where Messina Hof Grapevine calls home. Wallis White is a dry white wine that pays homage to this historical landmark.
